But, I don't think it detracts from the story. I carefully picked up the flower that had fallen in the mud, and, going back to the drawing-room, laid it on the table before her chair. Absolutely amazing novel. But that sound also led to a technique that we see copied by Young, Beck, Gilmour and many others, the sound of bending the notes using the whammy bar and not just the left hand and often doing both during the same song, and they have all recognised publicly on many occasions where it started.
